GOLF INSURANCE

Golf is, for sure, an expensive sport and sometimes, believe it or not, can be a dangerous sport. Golf insurance is not a new product but can offer you protection against loss and damages that can happen both on and off the golf course.

- For yourself, from damages inflicted by other parties ranging from death, loss of organs to medical expenses.
- For the third party, from damages caused by you ranging from loss of life, medical expense and lawsuits.
- For your equipment, in case of damage and theft. You will also receive a bonus should you get a hole-in-one.
